4 Bedroom Self Catering Villa in Camps Bay

A brilliant vision of Afro-modern brutalism on the slopes of Table Mountain, this low-slung villa offers discerning lovers of architecture a stylishly secluded escape with sweeping views of Lion's Head, the Twelve Apostles and out over the Atlantic Ocean.

Given its prime location - protected from wind among the foothills - This Villa is only a short drive from the restaurant and shopping scene of Cape Town central, including the iconic V&A Waterfront just minutes away and, further afield, the Constantia Wine Route offers exceptional dining, cellar tours and tastings in the country's oldest viniferous region. For the more adventurous, nearby hiking trails offer the opportunity to explore the surrounding mountains and nature reserve, as well as close access to the famed white beaches of Clifton and Camps Bay.
