3 Bedroom Self Catering Townhouse in De Waterkant

Imagine having exclusive use to a double-storey historic cottage in one of Cape Town's most stylish and beautiful enclaves. Outside in the tree-lined streets are coffee stops and restaurants serving spectacular global cuisine. You can browse shops and art, do yoga or simply stroll around the deeply historic neighbourhood. A nearby park also has fun activities for the children. There's such an invigorating energy about the area and you're just a short walk away from virtually anything you may need.

Step inside and you exchange the charm of outside for the soothing serenity of this heritage cottage that's an ode to calm. You will immediately exhale and dial down a few notches - the neutral, natural decor ensures this, accented only by cool greens, many of which are living plants. For summer, all three bedrooms have...
